Tuesday, August 28. 1705.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated August 14.

Naples, July 14.

THE Duke de Popoli embark'd on Saturday last on three Galleys of the Squadron of this Kingdom appointed to transport him to Barcelona, with the Dutchess his Lady, the Prince his Son, and the 42 Gentlemen that are to serve in his Company of the King of Spain's Italian Life-Guards. The Marquis d'Avarai, who commanded the French Troops in this Kingdom, and who is to serve in Spain, is gone on board the same Galleys for Provence, in order to go to the Court of France before he goes to his Command in Spain. Last Night the Squadron of Galleys of Sicily put to Sea with the new Viceroy the Marquis de Bedmar, who was accompanied by the Duke d'Escalona our Viceroy in a Gondola a pretty way out of our Port, where they took Leave of each other, the Cannon of the Galleys and of our Castles firing. It has been reported, that when the Cardinal del Giudici had surrendered the Viceroyship of Sicily to the Marquis de Bedmar, he would return hither; but at present we learn, that his Eminency has resolv'd to reside at the Seat of his Archbishoprick of Monreal. The Equestrian Statue of King Philip V. is plac'd upon its Pedestal in the Square of Jesus, where it will be kept cover'd till all is ready for the solemn Cavalcade which the Viceroy has order'd the Nobility of the Court to prepare to make at the uncovering of it. The Duke de Popoli who principally advis'd the setting up of this Statue, has taken a Model of it to carry to Spain with him; designing to present it to the King; with several Medals in Gold and Silver which he intends to give away among the Lords and Ladies of the Court of Madrid. Last Week the Regiment of Vico, and the second Regiment form'd of Soldiers drawn out of the Battallion of this Kingdom, sail'd from hence in several Tartans for the Milaneze, 3 other Regiments are ready to be sent thither, and a great Sum of Money will shortly be remitted to the same Country. The 12th Instant 2 more Troops of Horse were order'd to march to the Abruzzo, to reinforce the Troops that are there, to secure our Coast on the Adriatick Sea.

From the Brussels Gazette, dated August 21.

Naples, July 21. The Marquis de Bedmar, who went from hence last Week with five Galleys of the Squadron of Sicily, is gone directly to Palermo, there to take the usual Oath and enter upon the Exercise of his Viceroyship; which done he will reembark in the Capirana Galley for Messina, intending to pass the rest of the Summer there, and to spend the Winter at Palermo. The last Courier that came from Milan, was sent back with Remittances to the value of 25000 Crowns, and a more considerable Sum will speedily be remitted thither. The Departure of 3 Regiments remaining of the 8 that were form'd of the Soldiers drawn out of the Battallion of this Kingdom, is suspended till further Order. Six Corsairs of Barbary that are cruising off Cape St. Mary, and have taken several Prizes, have within a few Days been reinforc'd by 2 others and a Polack; they have with them besides 2 Galiots and some arm'd Shallops.

Not many Days ago they landed 200 Men near Sta Catherina, burnt some Fishermen's Boats and Huts, and spoil'd some Corn on the Ground; but the neighbouring Inhabitants running together upon the Alarm, charg'd them, kill'd several of them and wounded others, and made the rest betake themselves to their Shallops and put off from Shore.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated August 22.

Florence, August 8. We have Advice from Naples, that the young Gentlemen whom the Duke de Popoli has taken with him from thence to Spain to serve in the King's Guards, are extremely dissatisfied, and murmur that they were assur'd when they were prevail'd upon to list themselves as Volunteers they should not do constant Duty as ordinary Guards, but have since been otherwise inform'd. The Common People likewise are very much discontented at the taking of Men out of the Militia, to form regular Troops of them and transport them out of the Kingdom. But the French and their Creatures are not a little pleas'd that the young Gentlemen Volunteers are carried to Spain, looking upon them as Hostages and Sureties for the good Behaviour of their Relations.

Falmouth, August 23. On the 21st Instant, the Charles the 3d. and the Fame, both Privateers of Flushing, brought in as Prizes 2 Fly-Boats of 18 Guns each, and a Frigate-built Ship of 22 Guns, all 3 of and for Biscay, laden with Oil from Greenland, which they took after a hard Fight of 5 Hours. The Masters of these Prizes report, that they came from Greenland in Company of 2 other Ships, one of which they lost sight of by the Way, and the other founder'd, but they sav'd her Men, and had them now on board them. On the 22d arriv'd the Alliance Pacquet-boat, Captain Green Commander 7 Days from Lisbon, who brought hither several Officers to raise Recruits, but brings no News from the Fleet. Just now sail'd the Expedition Pacquet-boat, Francis Clyes Commander, with 3 Mails for Lisbon.

Portsmouth, August 25. The Robin of Flushing, Peter Brest Master, has brought in hither the Concord of St. Malo, Captain Devolaven Commander from Cadix, formerly the Eagle Gally of London: She is said to be a rich Ship, having on board Cocchineal and Indigo. Came in also the Unity of Flushing, George Anderson Master from the West-Indies, and 2 other Dutch Ships from thence. Yesterday we had a very violent Storm of Wind between 12 and 1 a Clock; it did not hold above half an hour; I do not hear of any Damage done by it. A great many of the Vessels driven on Shore the last Storm near Portsmouth, are got off again, and 'tis hop'd several more will be got off.

Tarmouth, Aug. 24. Yesterday came into these Roads Her Majesty's Ships the Assistance and Nightingale with the light Colliers from the Nore: and this Evening they sail'd from hence to the Northward, making up with those here before upward of 150 Sail: and this Afternoon are coming in the laden Fleet under Convoy of the Rumney and Queenborough, being about 140 Sail: The Men of War and the great Ships are not come in at the Ness yet.

Shields, August 24. Since my last there is sail'd out of this Port above 100 Sail of laden Colliers with

With a fair Wind; and Yesterday there sail'd about 8 Sail more of great Ships without Convoy.
